

Prepositions of Time - In, On, At

Intermediate/Advanced

Add "in", "at", "on" or — (no preposition)

(Sometimes there is more than one correct answer.)

1. The shop closed _____ the end of the day.
2. _____ the end, we decided not to go.
3. He usually feels tired _____ the morning, but today he felt great.
4. The kids came home _____ dinnertime.
5. She moved here _____ the early 2000s.
6. I saw him _____ Valentine's Day.
7. We visited our relatives _____ New Year's.
8. The baby woke up _____ the night.
9. I'll be ready _____ a few minutes.
10. Jack was born _____ the 21st century.
11. Paula called me _____ midnight.
12. We met _____ Friday evening.
13. I'll finish this _____ next Friday.
14. Michael always feels sleepy _____ night.
15. The course starts _____ the beginning of July.
16. I read that book _____ the semester break.
17. She learned to drive _____ a young age.
18. They arrived _____ the same time.
19. We usually go skiing _____ winter.
20. He left school _____ 16.
21. Jess often goes jogging _____ the morning, but not _____ Sundays.
22. She didn't like Frank _____ the beginning, but then her opinion changed.
23. He improved a lot _____ the last few months.
24. _____ ancient times, people often relied on the stars for navigation.
25. We stayed home _____ New Year's Day.

Answers

1. The shop closed at the end of the day.
2. In the end, we decided not to go.
3. He usually feels tired in the morning, but today he felt great.
4. The kids came home at dinnertime.
5. She moved here in the early 2000s.
6. I saw him on Valentine's Day.
7. We visited our relatives at New Year's.
8. The baby woke up in the night.
9. I'll be ready in a few minutes.
10. Jack was born in the 21st century.
11. Paula called me at midnight.
12. We met on/— Friday evening.
13. I'll finish this — next Friday.
14. Michael always feels sleepy at night.
15. The course starts at the beginning of July.
NB: Many people would also say "in the beginning of July".
16. I read that book in the semester break.
17. She learned to drive at a young age.
18. They arrived at the same time.
19. We usually go skiing in winter.
20. He left school at 16.
21. Jess often goes jogging in the morning, but not on/— Sundays.
22. She didn't like Frank in the beginning, but then her opinion changed.
NB: Many people would also say "in the beginning" here.
23. He improved a lot in the last few months.
24. In ancient times, people often relied on the stars for navigation.
25. We stayed home on New Year's Day.