

Present Perfect Exercises

Negative sentences

A. Add the present perfect negative form of the verb

Frank _____ his room. (cleaned)

→ Frank has not cleaned his room. OR Frank hasn't cleaned his room.

1. I _____ the news this morning. (watch)
2. He _____ his homework yet. (do)
3. They _____ the question. (understand)
4. We _____ there since 2024. (live)
5. The teacher _____ us homework this week. (give)
6. You _____ the email. (read)
7. The dog _____ her dinner yet. (have)
8. The kids _____ chess before. (play)
9. My parents _____ a lot. (travel)
10. Julia _____ to work. (come)

B. Make the sentences negative

They have bought a new car.

→ They have not bought a new car. OR They haven't bought a new car.

11. She's lost her phone. _____
12. Daniel has broken his glasses. _____
13. The children have eaten all the cupcakes. _____
14. I've forgotten his last name. _____
15. We have painted the living room. _____
16. Amy has found her wallet. _____
17. I have tried Indonesian food. _____
18. Mark and Mary have finished their presentation. _____
19. My dad has taken the dog for a walk. _____
20. He has answered her message. _____

Answers

A.

1. I have not watched the news this morning. / I haven't watched the news this morning.
2. He has not done his homework yet. / He hasn't done his homework yet.
3. They have not understood the question. / They haven't understood the question.
4. We have not lived there since 2024. / We haven't lived there since 2024.
5. The teacher has not given us homework this week. / The teacher hasn't given us homework this week.
6. You have not read the email. / You haven't read the email.
7. The dog has not had her dinner yet. / The dog hasn't had her dinner yet.
8. The kids have not played chess before. / The kids haven't played chess before.
9. My parents have not travelled/traveled a lot. / My parents haven't travelled/traveled a lot.
10. Julia has not come to work. / Julia hasn't come to work.

B.

11. She has not lost her phone. / She hasn't lost her phone.
12. Daniel has not broken his glasses. / Daniel hasn't broken his glasses.
13. The children have not eaten all the cupcakes. / The children haven't eaten all the cupcakes.
14. I have not forgotten his last name. / I haven't forgotten his last name.
15. We have not painted the living room. / We haven't painted the living room.
16. Amy has not found her wallet. / Amy hasn't found her wallet.
17. I have not tried Indonesian food. / I haven't tried Indonesian food.
18. Mark and Mary have not finished their presentation. / Mark and Mary haven't finished their presentation.
19. My dad has not taken the dog for a walk. / My dad hasn't taken the dog for a walk.
20. He has not answered her message. / He hasn't answered her message.